

Yet another ordinary day is going on in Calimero and friends' hometown. This time they aren't doing any crimefighting or solving mysteries. This day they are taking part in the big go-kart race of the year along with Wario-Ware-Man & siblings and Maya the Bee. Right now they are sitting in a small café since the race isn't starting just yet.

"I think it's going to be fun to take part in the race today!" Calimero said with proudness.

"So do I. I've really missed sitting on a go-kart and driving around." Priscilla said.

"Phah. I bet that I will be the one who crosses the finish line first!" Piero started to boast.

"Yeah, really..." said Warrio with an rather unenthusiastic tone.

"No, I mean it! This time I WILL do it! No cheating, no shortcuts. I'll be playing fair and square this time around! Though I will be coming first in line, that I'm sure of!" Piero boasted again.

"Nah, I will be the one to throw you all off the track with my stylish ways of driving!" Susie counteracted his claim.

"Um... are you sure you really meant to actually THROW me OFF the track?!?" asked Piero in shock.

"Aw, I didn't mean it like that. And I wouldn't even think about doing that to you, my sweet little mallard." Susie said and gives him a kiss on the side of his head.

"I'm a little disappointed to not be able to film anything today. Well, I had to leave my camera at home because it has started to act a bit weird lately..." Valeriano said.

"In what way?" asked Priscilla.

"Well, it sometimes refuses to turn on even if I hold the power button down for seconds. Besides that, I'm still excited to take part in the race, and not even a wonky video camera is going to dampen my spirit!" Valeriano said.

"I, on the other hand, are more than confident that I will be sweeping the entire track with my driving skills!" Roshita said with great confidence.

"Really?..." said Piero, not feeling the least surprised of Roshita's claim.

"And what do you know about me, duck face! Not even you could beat me in the race, let alone anyone else in here!" Roshita leaned over at him and told him off.

"Right right, take it easy little spectacles lady. It wasn't like I was claiming anything, was I??" Piero said. He takes notice of everyone else but Susie nodding as if to tell him he really was boasting about it.

"Oh, I see..." Piero said and suddenly goes quiet while lowering his head in shame.

"Well, I have never driven a go-kart before, but we're prepared to give it a try, aren't we Warrio and VARIO?" Wario-Ware-Man asked his siblings.

"Yeah. Though I also never driven one before, and I'm not sure how a go-kart even works." Warrio said.

"I... I'm not feeling quite sure... I mean, I've never driven a go-kart in my entire life, and the only vehicle I know how to drive is a Wario-Bike." VARIO said and starts to shake a little out of nervousity.

"I'm sure it will all go fine VARIO. You'll be able to learn how to drive it in no time." Maya said and pats VARIO gently on the back.

"Maya sure acts like a bit of a motherly person at times." Calimero said.

"Yeah. Having known her for quite a while now, I'm sure she is the one who tend to keep the Wario brother siblings in check every once in a while." Priscilla said.

"I sure am. While I know Wario-Ware-Man here can mostly take care of himself, it's the other two I have to keep from going completely astray." Maya said.

"Well anyway. Before the race starts, I think me and my siblings still need to do a few test drives to make sure we get the hang of driving our go-karts. If we don't, who knows what things could go wrong..." Wario-Ware-Man said.

"That's a good idea. We better not rush into the real race just yet. Besides, it'll be a while before it starts, and you guys will be having some time for practice." Calimero said in agreement.

"Alright, suppose we'll be off test driving then. That is, after we've finished our snacks here..." Wario-Ware-Man said and goes back to finish his garlic sandwich.

A while later, Wario-Ware-Man, Warrio, and VARIO are now sitting in their go-karts in front of the finish line, waiting to do some test driving.

"Alright, are you guys ready?" Wario-Ware-Man asked his siblings.

"More than ready!" Warrio said.

"Um, I..." VARIO said.

"Ok, I'll go first. You guys come after me!" Wario-Ware-Man said and starts to drive off onto the track. Warrio seems to be struggling to turn his go-kart on though.

"Aw come on you silly little..." Warrio said while trying to turn on his go-kart. It then starts and he too drives off. VARIO meanwhile, is just staying in his spot, not moving at all.

"What's wrong VARIO? Why are you not moving?" Priscilla asked.

"Well I... don't know how to turn this thing on. How do you even make it start?" VARIO asked.

"Press the button under the steering wheel." Valeriano told him. VARIO does as told and the engine on his go-kart starts, but he doesn't know that his foot is all the way down on the gas pedal and he starts to go fast for a bit.

"Waah!!?" a startled VARIO said and quickly pulls up his foot, making the go-kart stop.

"Phew, my garlic!!" VARIO said and breathes out in relief.

"Don't worry VARIO, you're doing fine by now. Just start driving!" Roshita encouraged him.

"Ah, ok!" VARIO said and starts to drive, albeit very slowly, with the other guys cheering him on.

Wario-Ware-Man and siblings keep racing on the track, making sure to have their eyes on the road at all times. Wario-Ware-Man reckons that all is going well so far.

"Suppose driving a go-kart is no different to driving a Wario-Bike! I think we'll get the hang of this before the race even starts." Wario-Ware-Man said to himself in confidence. Just then he sees Warrio speeding ahead of him.

"Hah hah, try and get in front of me now Wario-Ware-Man!" Warrio taunted him as he keeps driving off.

"Heh heh heh. Well, we'll see about it soon." Wario-Ware-Man chuckled to himself. He takes notice of Warrio about to drive off the track.

"Hey Warrio, keep your eyes on the road!!" Wario-Ware-Man tried to warn him. It's too late though; Warrio drives off the track and starts driving up on a grassy hill, stopping about halfway.

"Hm. I wonder what's gonna happen now..." Warrio wondered to himself. His go-kart then comes back down again, going backwards at a very fast speed.

"Waaah!!" screamed Warrio as he keeps going backwards on the track, zipping past Wario-Ware-Man in the process.

"Why is Warrio driving backwards now??" he wondered to himself, but keeps driving anyway.

No matter how fast his kart is going though, Warrio keeps driving ahead of Wario-Ware-Man while going backwards, clearing lap after lap. Wario-Ware-Man just scratches his mustache in confusion.

At the finish line, Warrio kart has now stopped, facing the opposite side of the line.

"I wonder if I did any good during the test drive." Warrio said.

"From what we saw you have been driving backwards through the entire race. While you certainly did good, you're not supposed to drive in reverse!" Calimero told him.

"Ah, rats..." Warrio said. After saying this Wario-Ware-Man arrive at the finish line.

"Wah hah! So, how well did I do?" said Wario-Ware-Man.

"Well, you certainly did better than Warrio here. You were a bit slower though." Susie said.

"Thanks, but I already know that bit." Wario-Ware-Man.

"Hang on, where's VARIO??" Priscilla said.

Not seeing VARIO coming, they all wonder where he has gone. They then see him coming, at a veery slow speed.

"Pfft... Bwaa-hahahahaaa!!" Warrio started to laugh after seeing VARIO arriving at such a slow pace.

"Where have you been VARIO, and what made you start driving so slowly??" Wario-Ware-Man asked.

"I... was feeling a bit insecure, so I kept my speed very low until I got the hang of it, but... when I was about to go faster my go-kart started going slower than the speed I was already going at!" VARIO said.

"Ah, so that's why I never saw you behind or in front of me!" Warrio said.

"I think we need to have VARIO's go-kart looked at before the race starts, or he won't be able to take part in the race." Wario-Ware-Man said, with the other guys agreeing.

Later, after VARIO's go-kart has been fixed the race is about to start. Everyone who is taking part in it, basically Calimero and gang, are now sitting at the finish line in their go-karts.

"I'm more than eager to show off my driving skills! I'm sure they have gotten sharper since the last time I tried go-karting." said Priscilla.

"I'm sure I will win this race! Yeah, I know I said it before. But I just like to boast!" Piero said.

"I feel I can beat them all in a flash by not lifting a finger..." said Susie.

"Oh shuush. I will be sweeping the entire race before any of you can even say or do anything!" Roshita told them.

"I-I'm only rather nervous and afraid... what if something happens to me during the race??" said VARIO. Sitting besides VARIO in her own kart, Maya starts to comfort him.

"Don't you worry VARIO. I'm sure things will be going fine." Maya told him.

After the taunting is over the race starts and everyone starts to drive onto the track. So far Wario-Ware-Man seems to be in the lead, and he reckons he will win the race.

"Things seems to be going quite well for me already, and the race has only just started! I think I'll be winning the race!" Wario-Ware-Man said.

"Not for long!" said Calimero as he drives past Wario-Ware-Man, followed by Valeriano.

"Don't worry Wario-Ware-Man, I'm sure you'll find a way of getting ahead of us. Now if you excuse me, I've got a race to win!!" said Valeriano and starts speeding on.

"Darn it..." said Wario-Ware-Man. Warrio then starts going past him, oddly driving backwards like he did during the test drive.

"Um, Warrio. Why are you driving your go-kart backwards??" asked Wario-Ware-Man.

"My kart is doing this at random times, and I'm not in any control of it!" Warrio said.

"Hm, maybe we should've also checked Warrio's go-kart before starting the race... anyhow, I rather not worry about it since Warrio seems to be doing rather well." Wario-Ware-Man said.

After about the first half of the first lap has gone, the boys still appear to be in the lead. Wario-Ware-Man and Warrio are still trailing behind Calimero and Valeriano though, with Piero being just behind the former two.

"My garlic. It doesn't matter what I do. Those two guys are still in the lead!" said Wario-Ware-Man.

"At least I'm right behind them!" said Warrio, whose go-kart is still facing the wrong way.

"Well, at least SOMEONE seems to be doing fine there compared to here! Even so, I'm still doing much better than I thought I would." Piero said, only for Susie to appear by his side.

"Hi there Piero~..." said Susie.

"Aw no. A girl is gonna beat me to the race..." Piero said to himself.

"giggles... I sure am! It isn't just the boys who's doing all the winning around here!" Susie taunted him. Before she speeds on ahead Susie talks to him some more.

"Remember. No matter what happens, be it me or you winning, we will both win in the end!" Susie said and blows a kiss at him. She then starts to speed ahead of Piero, bringing him one position lower.

""No matter what happens, be it me or you winning, we will both win in the end"?? I'm not really sure what to think there..." Piero said to himself, still feeling very confused over Susie's words.

Meanwhile, the girls are way behind the others. Roshita is ahead. Maya is last, and Priscilla is between the other two.

"A shame that I'm not the one to be in the lead..." said Priscilla.

"Indeed. The boys seems to be doing much better than us. Even so, In one way or another we might be getting ahead of the others!" said Maya.

"Where's Susie though? Weren't she behind us just moments ago?" Priscilla wondered.

"She probably got herself a little boost and started speeding ahead of us. I wonder how..." said Maya.

"Aaugh. I won't let a gang of boys beat me to the race! Time to start going faster!!" Roshita said and starts to increase the speed on her go-kart.

"Speaking about boys, where's VARIO?? I haven't seen him since the race started!" Maya wondered.

"Yes, where could he be? Anyway, I'm sure he'll show up sooner or later. You know how he is, don't you?" said Priscilla.

"Yeah, I know. He's a bit of a scaredy cat at times, even over the littlest things... but somehow I get the feeling that something must have happened to him..." Maya said.

Indeed, VARIO seems to be trailing waay behind in last place. His go-kart seems to be having some problems again.

"Graah! No matter how hard I push the gas pedal down, my go-kart still won't go any faster. Even though it's going a bit quicker than last time, it's still nowhere fast enough!" VARIO said. Desperate to try and catch up to the other racers, VARIO tries to think of something.

"Aha!" said VARIO after getting a idea and pulls out a bottle of orange juice from his pocket.

"I was going to drink this at the café earlier, but saved it for later. Maybe, just maybe..." said VARIO and stops his go-kart.

He opens the lid on its fuel tank and pours some orange juice in it. He puts the lid back on and jumps into his go-kart again.

"I'm not sure if this is going to work, but I hope it does..." said VARIO and turns on his go-kart. His vehicle then starts going fast, much faster than before.

"Wahoo!! Now this is what I call speed! Alright guys, look out. Here I come!!" said VARIO and starts to drive very, very fast, eager to catch up with the other guys.

Back to the girls, they're still trailing way behind. Suddenly they see VARIO speeding ahead of them.

"Hi there girls! Haven't got the speed needed to win the race, I see? By some miracle my go-kart is now going much faster, faster than a little snail!" VARIO taunted them. VARIO then notices the frown on the girls' faces.

"Oh, er... sorry, did I go too far with my taunting?" VARIO asked.

"Oh, no no. It's all fine VARIO. Don't worry about it. Thanks for your thoughtfulness though." said Priscilla.

"But how are you going so fast??" asked Maya.

"Easy peasy..." said VARIO and pulls out a bottle of orange juice.

"A bottle of orange juice?" asked Priscilla upon seeing the bottle.

"Exactly. It seems to have had a desirable effect on the speed of my go-kart, and now it's going much faster than before! See you girls later!" said VARIO and starts speeding on, and no sooner is he out of sight.

"How can a little bottle of orange juice make a go-kart go any faster?? I just don't get it in my head..." Priscilla wondered.

"Me neither." Maya said, feeling equally clueless.

"How DARE HE get ahead of me like that!? Ooh, I'm SOO gonna show him when I finally get ahead of everyone else!" said Roshita and presses her foot on the gas pedal even harder, hoping to speed ahead of VARIO and the other racers.

"My, Roshita isn't one to give up it seems!" said Maya.

"Yes. Roshita may be nice, but she can also be fiesty, especially when it comes to competitions." Priscilla said and tries to go faster, with Maya doing the same.

During the first half of the second lap, Warrio is now in the lead, with his vehicle alternating between driving straight and backwards. Behind him, Calimero and Valeriano can only chuckle over what's going on in front of them.

"Hey, cut that off! It's not funny!" said Warrio.

"Sorry Warrio, but it just looks so funny when your kart does that all the time. I just can't stop laughing!" said Valeriano.

"I sorta regret not getting Warrio's vehicle fixed earlier... anyhow, it's far too late to worry about it now Warrio. You just have to get used to it!" said Wario-Ware-Man.

"Grr... yeah, I suppose so." said Warrio while biting his teeth in irritation.

Susie is behind Wario-Ware-Man, still trying to drive past him. He looks behind him to see her starting to flirt with him.

"Yohoo, Wario-Ware-Man!" said Susie and starts to wink and flirt at him.

"Garlic, Susie sure knows how to lure a guy like me into lull-lull land..." said Wario-Ware-Man.

"Hey you, look over here~..." Susie said and giggles, and starts to flirt some more with him.

"Oh no, she's only doing this to try and make me lose my focus so she can get ahead of me. I better resist!" Wario-Ware-Man said and carries on driving, not even trying to look behind him.

Just then, all of a sudden everything flashes dark white for a moment and a thunderous sound is heard. After just seconds the flashing stops.

"Ow. My eyes... what was all the flashing about, and where did it come from??" wondered Priscilla.

"I'm not sure there. But the boys seems to have disappeared somehow. I can't see them on the track anymore." Maya said after noticing the boys no longer being anywhere in sight.

Focusing on Wario-Ware-Man, he's feeling a little confused and dizzy after the light that blinded him.

"My head... what was all that about?!" said Wario-Ware-Man.

"What happened Wario-Ware-Man?" wondered Calimero, having just recovered from his dizziness as well.

"I don't know..." said Wario-Ware-Man, feeling just as confused. He looks around and notices the racing track being much bigger than he remembers,

"Hm, that's strange. Since when did the track get this big??" said Wario-Ware-Man. After saying this Warrio then comes by, being the same size as the other boys, still driving backwards.

"Say, why are things feeling so big all of a sudden?!" said Warrio.

"Um, I think I've figured it out now. It isn't the track that's become big. It is us who have shrunk!" said Calimero.

"Shrunk?! Aw no, don't tell me that one of you did it!" said Warrio.

"No Warrio. None of us are responsible for this. Only thing I wonder is how this even happened." said Wario-Ware-Man.

"I wonder where the girls are though..." said Valeriano and looks around, but doesn't see the girls anywhere.

Piero, who is just behind the other guys, then sees a big shadow looming over him. He looks up to see where the shadow comes from, and sees Susie behind him, now much bigger than him.

"Yikes!!" said a shocked and scared Piero and tries to steer himself away from Susie. She misses him though.

"Phew..." said Piero in relief. His relief is cut short though, because Roshita is now approaching him and the other boys, with the other girls coming after.

"You're not getting ahead of me Maya!" said Priscilla.

"Oh yeah, we'll see about it soon!" said Maya and tries to drive past Priscilla.

"H-hey, watch it ladies! You're about to squish me here!!" Piero screamed and tries his best to steer away from the girls' go-karts. They all miss him though and continue driving, leaving him in last place.

"Oh great, now I'm on LAST place! Still, there's something fishy going on here... I better keep driving!" said Piero and starts to accelerate.

Over to the other boys, they are now doing their best to evade the girls' vehicles.

"My garlic. We're about to be flattened by a gang of giant girls!!" said Wario-Ware-Man.

"Calimero, look out!!" Valeriano warned Calimero. Calimero sees Priscilla now approaching him. He's in the unfortunate position of being just under Priscilla's vehicle, with the latter completely unaware of him.

"Aah!!" said Calimero and tries to drive away from Priscilla. It looks like she is about to crush him flat, but Priscilla then starts to turn towards a corner, saving his life.

"Phew... t-that was close!!" Calimero said as his heart still beats rapidly.

"Are you ok Calimero?!" Valeriano asked him as he approaches his side.

"Yes, I'm fine..." said Calimero.

"And there comes Warrio I see..." said Valeriano after seeing him drive past them, still alternating between going straight and backwards.

VARIO, who now is way ahead of the others, is unaware of what has happened, and keeps on driving like nothing has happened.

"Heh-heh. Looks like I'm the one to win the race this time! Who would've known that a bottle of orange juice could make your vehicle go much quicker!" said VARIO. He then looks behind him to see the girls approaching him.

"What the... how can those girls now be driving so fast??" said VARIO and keeps looking at the girls, who seem to be getting not only nearer, but bigger by every second.

"But... hang on, why are they getting bigger now?!!" said VARIO.

VARIO keeps looking at the girls, who never seems to stop getting any bigger. The moment they get closer is when it finally dawns on him.

"GAAH!! They're big, they're BIIG!!!" VARIO became comically frightened over the girls' huge size compared to him. Even though they drive past him, and it seems like they're about to drive over him, they only manage to make him spin around in place as they carry on driving.

Back to Wario-Ware-Man, he's starting to think that something or someone might be responsible for making him and the other boys shrink.

"Hm, I think someone among the girls might be trying to cheat the race. But who of them could it be? I rule out Priscilla because she's far too nice to just be cheating like that. Maya can be fairly competitive at times, so it's possible that she could have done it... even so, I doubt that theory because Maya isn't one to cheat unfairly. Susie is another possibility, considered she flirted with me earlier just to get ahead of me. Now what about Roshita? ... well, it could be her since she really displayed a desire to be in the lead..." Wario-Ware-Man said while thinking over which girl could be the responsible one.

"Naaw, I don't think any of them are guilty. I mean, what evidence is there anyway? It's not like I've got any..." Wario-Ware-Man shrugged them all off and starts to think again. Indeed, it is very difficult to point out the guilty one when the evidence isn't even there.

While Wario-Ware-Man keeps wondering over what caused him and the boys to shrink, back at the starting line a tall figure wearing a cloak is standing behind a wall, watching the events unfold at the racing track.

"Hm, it all seems to have worked according to plan..." said the figure and walks out revealing the whole figure. The cloak ends just at half the legs' length. The legs are orange, with black pointy women's shoes, suggesting that this person is a woman.

"Yes, yes. My little experiment is a success! Not a single fly can be seen on the track." the woman said and pulls out a thunderbolt shaped item, with black beady eyes on it, resembling an item from a certain red plumber's racing series of games.

"This thing here sure did what it was advertised to do; to shrink anyone and everyone it is used on. Right, looks like I'll be having the track all to myself now, he he he!" the woman said and is about to take one of the empty go-karts, only to see the other girls racing on the track, still normal-sized.

"Huh? But how?? Why are the girls still normal-sized?!? Grr... alright, no time to waste! I better get out there and set things straight!!" the woman said, and after hopping into the go-kart she starts driving towards the track.

Over to the boys, they are still struggling to get ahead of the girls.

"Naw, it's no use. With the girls being way bigger than us, we'll have no chance of catching up to them!" said Calimero.

"We won't give up. Somehow we must get their attention!" said Valeriano.

"Yep. I'm also sure of it. The question is HOW we would get their attention..." said Wario-Ware-Man.

Just then they hear someone coming behind them. Piero looks behind his kart to see a big woman in a robe coming at them.

"Um, guys? I think we're in for a bit of trouble!!" Piero warned them. The woman then lowers her speed to taunt the tiny guys a little.

"Well hello there tiny boys. Having fun driving on a track bigger than the rest of you, I see." the woman taunted them.

"Not at all!!" said Piero.

"That voice... I remember it from somewhere... alright, you better show your face, you fiend!!" demanded Valeriano.

"Hah hah, of course." said the woman and takes off her robe and throws it away, revealing the woman's actual look and character.

"SHARON?!!" the boys gasped out loud in surprise and chock. It is indeed Sharon, the snobby, greedy woman Calimero and pals helped Emma put behind bars earlier.

"So we meet again! But how in the world did you get out of prison??" said Calimero.

"Oh, by some coincidence a lucky star was visiting my cell window one night, and as if by magic the wall blew open, allowing my escape..." said Sharon.

"I think it's more likely she had those Dumb-Crow thieves bust her out..." Warrio reckoned.

"I admire your sharp thinking, little guy. In fact, that is exactly what happened! They were handsome enough to think of me and help me get out of my cell." Sharom complimented Warrio.

"Don't you think you can get away with this! We will stop you from ruining this race, in whatever way it takes!" Calimero told her.

"Agreed! We'll be putting you back in jail in no time!!" Piero said.

"Hah! You may try, but you won't be able to stop me now that you're so small..." Sharon said.

"Seriously, we WILL be stopping you! You won't get away with this!!" Wario-Ware-Man told her. Sharon just laughs at their words and starts speeding ahead of them, causing a huge cloud of smoke to obscure their view.

Back to the girls, they're still trying to outrace each other, unaware of what is going to happen later. Susie and Roshita are now next to each other, trying to push the other off-track.

"Get out of my way you spectacled duckface! I was first in line!!!" Roshita screamed at Susie.

"No, I was first before you! And DON'T yell at me like that!" said Susie and tries to push Roshita away. The other girls behind them can only watch in disbelief over their behavior.

"Sigh. Those two are thinking about nothing but themselves..." said Priscilla.

"Yeah. It was Roshita who started it though..." said Maya.

"Where's the boys by the way? I haven't seen them in quite a while..." Priscilla wondered.

"I wonder the same thing. Maybe they've given up and gone home?" Maya asked out of curiosity.

"I don't think that's the case Maya. I mean, the boys WERE racing on the track when the lightning struck the area." said Priscilla.

As the two keep thinking over the boys' whereabouts they hear someone honking at them from behind, and Sharon then appear by their side.

"Hello there, little girls!" Sharon taunted them.

"Sharon?!!" Maya and Priscilla shouted in surprise over seeing Sharon in the race.

"How... HOW did you even get here???" said Priscilla, aghast.

"Oh, I also wanted to have a bit of fun racing, even more so by shrinking everyone and maybe even squish some of the racers during the race if lucky!" said Sharon.

"So it is YOU who are responsible for shrinking the boys!!" said Maya after hearing Sharon's statement.

"Actually, I wanted to shrink ALL of you, but somehow only the boys seems to have shrunk. I've no idea why though. But NOW I want to fix my little error by shrinking you girls as well!!" said Sharon and pulls out a lightning bolt from her kart.

"Gasp...I-is THAT the thing you used to shrink the other racers with!?" said Priscilla.

"That is so, and now YOU'RE going to get it!" said Sharon and is about to throw the bolt at Priscilla.

"Uh-oh, I better do something quick!" said Maya and pushes Priscilla out of the way and drives off as Sharon is about to throw the bolt at Priscilla, only for it to miss its target.

"Ooh!! I'm soo gonna get you, if it's the last thing I'm going to do!!" said Sharon and attempts to drive after the girls.

Priscilla and Maya keep driving away from Sharon who is ready to throw her next bolt at them. They drive past Roshita and Susie who is still trying to push each other off the track. The two stop their fighting upon seeing Maya and Priscilla driving past them.

"Hey, where are you two going in such a hurry??" asked Susie.

"No time to explain. Just keep driving, and DON'T look behind you at any time!" said Priscilla and continues to drive her kart as fast as she can. Susie and Roshita are puzzled over what Priscilla meant by saying that. Just then a bolt strikes just near them, startling them.

"AAH!!" Susie and Roshita screamed a little and looks behind them to see Sharon driving towards them with her never-ending supply of lightning bolts.

"Ah ha ha haah! You are mine now!!" Sharon said and is about to throw her next bolt at them.

"That thing she's holding sure doesn't look very nice!" Susie said.

"I think the same as you! We better start driving as fast as possible!" Roshita said and starts driving off.

"Wait for ME!!" Susie said and starts driving after Roshita, with Sharon just behind them.

Over to the boys again, they keep hearing the sounds of thunder behind their backs, and in the distance they see the girls now being chased by Sharon who is desperately trying to shrink them.

"I wonder what we can do to help them!" wondered Calimero.

"There's no way we can help them now that we're so small and slow. In fact, we wouldn't even be able to stop Sharon no matter how hard we try!" said Valeriano.

"Don't say that valeriano! In some way we will be able to stop her!" said Calimero.

"Yeah, but HOW??" wondered Warrio.

Still being ahead of the other boys, having heard all the chatter about them being so slow and small, VARIO gets an idea and pulls out a bunch of juice bottles.

"Is it just me, or is VARIO thinking about drinking himself full of juice when we all are in a pickled garlic here!?" Warrio said to himself, confused over what VARIO is thinking of.

"No you idiot. I thought that since my go-kart got faster by filling it with orange juice, maybe it could also work with your karts!" VARIO suggested.

"Well... while the idea sounds rather ridiculous, I think it's worth a try." said Calimero.

"Ok, here's your juice bottles!" said VARIO and throws the other guys one bottle each. They pour their juice bottles into the fuel tank of their karts, and in only seconds they start to go much faster.

"Wahoo!! Now THAT'S what I call SPEED! Look out Sharon, here we come!!" Warrio said.

"I better pour some more juice into my kart so I can catch up with the other guys more easily." said VARIO and pours some more of his bottle into his kart, and suddenly VARIO drives even faster than he usually does, now going at the same speed as the other boys' karts, and fast enough to catch up to Sharon.

Meanwhile, back to the girls Sharon is still hot on their trail, doing her best to ram into them to try and slow them down.

"Hey, stop doing that you meanie!!" Roshita shouted at her.

"I don't think she will stop with it anytime!" said Maya.

Sharon then stops trying to ram into the girls and pulls out another lightning bolt, and holds it in her hand for a moment to take the time to talk the girls down.

"You've been doing quite well so far during this race, but this time you WON'T have any chance of evading my beautiful little bolt here!" Sharon said. While she's laughing over the girls' apparent misfortune she suddenly feels something hitting her kart from behind.

"What, hey! What's going on!?" Sharon said and looks in the special mirror on her kart which is able to see what's directly behind her.

"Oh, you boys have caught up to me already?!!" Sharon said in surprise.

"You better stop with what you're doing! Before you know it we will put an end to your little mischief and put you behind bars!" Valeriano said.

"He heh heh. You do realize it's rather puny of you to try and stop me at this stage? While I can't shrink you any more, I'm at least glad you're keeping me company while I try shrinking the girls in front of me!" Sharon said. She then feels another hit coming from Calimero's kart, followed by Piero.

"You leave my girlfriend be, or you'll be seeing worse stuff coming from us!" said Calimero.

"Yeah. I DARE you to try and shrink MY girlfriend. You won't be having the chance!!" said Piero and rams into Sharon's kart again. The boys keep ramming into Sharon's go-kart to try and slow her down.

"Drat. Those boys are serious with what they're saying! I better try get away from them! Gotta wonder how they're able to ram into my kart when I'm bigger than them..." said Sharon and tries to accelerate, but her go-kart won't go any faster.

"Oh no, it won't go any faster!! I better try another tactic to shake them off!" Sharon said and puts her left foot on the braking pedal while still having her right foot down, causing loads of smoke to appear and obscure the boys' view.

"Bye my tinies. May you have a nice time inhaling some smoke, ha ha ha ha!!" said Sharon and starts driving off again. Within the smoke, the boys are doing their best to keep driving despite the sight being terrible.

"My garlic. That woman knows how to throw you off-track!!" said Wario-Ware-Man and keeps coughing.

"We must keep driving! The smoke will probably dissipate soon enough." said Valeriano. Unfortunately for them the smoke still linger around, and the boys now starts driving here and there on the track, resulting in them driving into each other.

"Aaah!!!" said the boys and flies up in all directions..

The girls meanwhile, are still evading Sharon, and they've just heard the racket going on behind them.

"I wonder what the noise was about!" said Priscilla.

"It sounded like a big crash! Maybe something's happened to the boys!" said Maya.

"Oh, Piero. I hope he's doing alright..." said Susie.

"Oh??" said Maya as she feels something landing on her body.

"Huh?" said Priscilla, feeling something landing on her as well.

"What?!?" Roshita said and tries to feel what it was that landed on her. She can't feel anything though.

"Hm, weird. I thought some tiny thing landed on me..." said Roshita in wonder.

"Hunh?? That's a very funny feeling!" said Susie as something lands on her body.

On Maya's body, it is shown that Wario-Ware-Man and Warrio have landed on her, and are now driving around on her.

"My garlic, I never thought this kind of thing would've happened today..." said Wario-Ware-Man in slight embarrassment.

"Well, it does feel kinda weird driving around on the body of a giant bee. But at least it makes for a good racing track!" said Warrio.

"Te he, that tickles!..." said Maya as the two keep driving around on her body, feeling tickled by their driving, only to see them driving towards her left arm.

"Hey, careful you two! Lucky I'm having my arms out, or you would have fallen off me!" Maya said.

"Um, thanks!" said Wario-Ware-Man as he and Warrio starts driving on her left arm. Indeed, Maya now not only has to drive her own go-kart, but also have to make sure Wario-Ware-Man and Warrio don't fall off of her.

Calimero is now driving on Priscilla's body, with the latter not yet having seen him.

"I wonder what this itch is about. I mean, it feels like something is driving on me..." Priscilla said. Just then she sees Calimero driving on her body, which startles her a bit.

"My, Calimero!! Is that you!?" said Priscilla.

"Yes, it's me! Quite a view up from here isn't it?..." said Calimero.

"It sure must seem like it to you! Don't worry, I'm not embarrassed with you driving on me. I actually kind of like it." said Priscilla.

"You... you do??" asked Calimero.

"Yeah! ... but do try and get off of me soon if possible, ok?" Priscilla politely asked him.

Over to Roshita, it appears that Valeriano has landed on her and is now driving around on her body. She has just noticed him at this point and is feeling rather confused.

"Um, Valeriano. Why are you driving on me?? I'm not your personal racing track!" Roshita told him.

"I know! Not my fault though. It was Sharon's doing!" said Valeriano.

"Naw, me thinks you're doing it on purpose... got to admit that it does feel kinda good. And by that I mean I can now finally spend some more quality time with you!" Roshita said.

"Aw geez... not really my best day today..." said Valeriano and keeps on driving. He then starts to drive on Roshita's chest, which makes her feel rather flustered.

"Valeriano, what have I told you about driving on a girl's chest?!! I know you're really into rather beautiful and good-looking girls, but this is TOO much!" Roshita told him off. All Valeriano can do is lower his head in shame and just keeps driving around on Roshita.

On Susie's body, Piero is now driving all around over her. Unlike the others though, she seems to be loving every minute of it.

"Er... you don't mind if I keep driving on you for a while?" Piero asked out of nervousity.

"Oh no, I won't mind it at all. In fact, you can keep driving on me for as long as you want!" Susie said.

"So... you don't want me to get off then??" said Piero.

"Nope. You keep driving my dear little mallard! I'm more than happy to be your playground! After all, driving on a big girl like me must be even more fun than driving on a boring everyday race track, am I right?" said Susie.

"Er... yeah, I suppose it is..." said Piero. After saying that Susie then gives him a flirty little wink.

"Sigh... in some way or another I've got to get off from Susie. Not that I have anything against her, far from it. But I just can't keep driving around on her all day." Piero said and keeps thinking over how to get himself off from Susie.

As the girls keep minding their shrunken friends/boyfriends during the race, VARIO seems to have landed on Sharon's body, driving all around on her. Sharon however, isn't too pleased to find VARIO on her body though.

"Hmpf, so you decided to use me as your racing track?! Well sorry, but you're going off me right now!!" said Sharon and tries to flick him away with her hand.

"AIIIEE!!" VARIO screamed and steers himself away from her fingers.

"Oh, you little pest! You're not gonna avoid me so easily!" said Sharon and keeps trying to flick VARIO away. VARIO keeps dodging her though and continues driving. Sharon then feels him behind her back.

"What?... Aah, gnnh!! Get away from there you little nitwit!!" said Sharon and uses her left hand to try and scratch VARIO off of her. The other girls in front of her looks behind them to see Sharon acting rather strangely.

"What is she doing?!?" Susie wondered.

"I'm not completely sure there myself." said Priscilla.

"Don't mind me! I've just got a small bug to take care off!!" said Sharon and keeps scratching her back.

VARIO then leaves Sharon's back, and starts to drive up the back of her neck and onto the top of her head.

"Gaah?! Why is my hair starting to itch now??" Sharon said and starts scratching her head frantically, hoping the itch will go away. Her scratching causes VARIO to fall off of her head, and lands on her beak.

"Aah, that felt rather good." said Sharon in relief. She then notices VARIO on her beak in front of her eyes.

"Oh, er... hello there!" VARIO said nervously and wiggles his fingers at her.

"Ha, NOW I finally have you!" Sharon said and is about to grab him with her hand. Before she can do it though VARIO falls down yet again and lands right in her cleavage.

"Huh?!! Hey, get out of there little pervert, get out!!" said a now flustered and embarrassed Sharon and attempts to remove VARIO from her chest. However, her struggles to do so while driving only causes Sharon to start driving off the road. The other girls stop their karts as soon as they see Sharon just driving off into the distance.

"What made her no longer drive on the track??" wondered Roshita. The other girls are also equally puzzled.

Over to Sharon, she has forgone trying to get VARIO off of her body and is now doing her best to regain control of her kart.

"Come on stupid thing, do as I say!!" Sharon said in panic as she tries to turn her kart back towards the racing track again, but it's too late and she ends up driving up the very same grassy hill Warrio drove up on earlier.

Compared to Warrio, her kart stops even higher up, almost stopping at the very top of the hill. Sharon looks behind her to see the distance between the ground below and the spot she's now standing on.

"Oh... goulp..." Sharon said out loud and in just seconds her kart starts rolling down at a very high speed.

Back to the girls, they are about to approach the finish line only to see Sharon zip past them and crash into a wall, after which a flashing light appears in front of them along with a thunderous sound.

"Did you just see what I saw??" asked Susie.

"Yes. It was Sharon!" said Maya.

"And that blinding light came after she crashed into the wall of the building over at the finish line." said Priscilla.

After getting to the finish line the girls get out of their go-karts to inspect the area where Sharon crashed her car. They can't see anything though apart from the impact on the wall.

"This is strange! We saw Sharon crash her go-kart at this wall!" said Priscilla.

"We did..." said Roshita.

They keep looking around, only to find Sharon's kart at a tiny size below their feet, with VARIO sitting next to it, dizzy after the impact.

"Oof... this is the first, and LAST time I'll ever sit myself on another go-kart again!" VARIO said and falls down on his back, and blacks out.

At VARIO's side lies Sharon, now the same size as VARIO. After getting herself up to a sitting position she is dismayed to find that she is now as small as VARIO.

"No, no, nooo!!! This is NOT how it was supposed to happen!! Thank you so much you black n' white clad fatso! If it weren't for you my plan would have succeeded!!" Sharon yelled at VARIO, who is still lying on the ground completely knocked out.

The other girls start surrounding Sharon. Priscilla picks her up with her fingers and holds her at her eye level.

"The only thing you have succeeded in doing is landing yourself a place in captivity!" Maya told her.

"Yes. Your fun is over. Now it is you who will win a trip to prison, where you belong!" Priscilla taunted her with a serious tone in her voice. Not liking the sound of it, Sharon tries to wriggle herself free.

"Oh no, you don't!" said Priscilla and quickly puts her left hand under Sharon, and tightens her right hand even more so Sharon can't get away.

"You won't be escaping us this time, no matter how hard you try! And it was YOU that ruined my chances of winning the race!!" Roshita scolded her. Behind the girls, Susie doesn't seem to be taking part in what's going on, and keeps posing her body as Piero keeps racing all over her on his kart.

"Ha hah. Keep going Piero, keep going! Keep driving all around my body!" Susie said while she keeps posing her body in various ways.

"But Susie. I'm more than tired of driving on you all the time! I'm also starting to get sick!" said Piero.

"No way I'm letting you stop anytime soon. The fun has only just started!" Susie said and closes her eyes, feeling content with Piero just driving on her body over and over. The other girls giggle as they watch Susie posing on her spot while Piero keeps driving on her.

Later at evening, Calimero and friends are now in their flat, with Maya the Bee staying over for the night.

"Sure was very exciting to drive around the track in my go-kart today!" said Priscilla.

"It sure was great fun to me, and a lot of things were going on during the race. Shame that Sharon fellow had to come and sabotage everything." Maya said.

"By now she's been locked up, and this time she won't be able to break out of prison again." said Priscilla.

"I'm extremely disappointed to not have won today's race. All those skillful twists and turns of mine, all for nothing. All thanks to some snobby woman who just had to come and ruin things!" Roshita said.

Susie meanwhile is in a world of her own. She's sitting on her chair, with Piero still driving around on her body.

"Who knew having a tiny person racing on you would feel so much fun! What more, you'll even get some nice tickles here and there!" said Susie. Piero meanwhile is feeling more than tired of driving around on his girlfriend's body by now, and just wants to stop his go-kart and have a rest.

"Yaawn... I'm very tired of driving around all day. I just wanna stop and take a well deserved rest! ... knowing Susie though, she wouldn't be one to let me stop anytime, given how much she seems to enjoy this... but I do wonder for much longer the fuel on my kart will last." Piero said and keeps driving. Susie let's out a small giggle as she feels him now driving up her neck.

Calimero has since gotten out of his go-kart and is now sitting on Priscilla's lap, with the latter cuddling and petting him with her finger.

"You're feeling better now, my little boy? You must be really worn out from all that driving we did today." said Priscilla.

"I'm feeling fine Priscilla. Just a bit tired though..." said Calimero.

"Te he, I knew you were..." said Priscilla and keeps cuddling and petting her little boyfriend.

Roshita meanwhile, has decided to let Valeriano drive on her for a longer period of time, something the latter is not too pleased about.

"I know I said I would be getting you off of me after the race. But I decided it would be better if I let you drive on me for a while longer. I also feel that our relationship will improve a lot this way! Finally after all these years, we'll be spending some proper quality time together!" said Roshita. Valeriano meanwhile isn't feeling too excited hearing about this.

"Sigh... I just want to get off of Roshita by now and go fiddle with my video camera, because it really needs to be looked at... on the other hand, Roshita can be very demanding, and if I stop now she would more than likely force me to keep going. I'll just keep driving for now..." said Valeriano and continues to drive around on Roshita, hoping that at some point she'll be tired of it all.

Wario-Ware-Man and Warrio are still driving around on Maya, having figured that the fur on her body makes for a perfect racing track, and also because Maya liked the feeling of them driving on her earlier on.

"Who would've guessed that Maya is one of the best tracks for racing on! Besides that, it was her idea that we use her body as our racing track to practice on. Wonder where Warrio is though..." said Wario-Ware-Man. Just then he sees Warrio zipping past him, with his kart still alternating between driving straight and backwards.

"Pfft... Bwaa-ha-ha-ha-haa!! Your kart still hasn't decided which way it should be facing, I see!" Wario-Ware-Man laughed at the sight.

"Grr... I'm getting veery irritated over this thing by now! Next time Wario-Ware-Man, it is I who should be taking YOUR go-kart instead!" Warrio told him off.

"Well, all's well that ends well, I suppose." said Maya and looks over to her right side, where VARIO, still tiny, is now sitting having himself one of the honey cookies Maya often bakes for herself or for special occasions.

"Enjoying your cookie, VARIO?" Maya asked him.

"Yep..." was all VARIO said before he takes his next bite of the cookie. Maya chuckles a little as she watches him happily chomping away on his cookie.

The End...
